

Jig Ramji

Trustee

Jig has over twenty years of experience as a Human Capital Leader specialising in Organisation Transformation and Change, Talent Management and Leadership Development. He has wide scale international experience having lived and worked in the UK, the Netherlands, Australia, Singapore and Hong Kong whilst leading Global and Regional teams.

Jig is currently the Group Head of Talent at the London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG) and is also a non-executive Director and trustee with the LSEG foundation. He is also a board member at the International Coaching Federation in the UK and the Financial Services Skills Commission.

Within his career, Jig has worked with some of the largest global multinationals including Fujitsu, Macquarie, Deloitte and Bloomberg on significant transformation and change programs. Jig is a Chartered Fellow of the CIPD, an accredited Executive Coach, a certified Hogan practitioner and a certified EIP3 emotional intelligence practitioner.