

Nigel Perks

Trustee

Nigel is a Partner at Stork & May where he specialises in supporting and advising senior executives through organisational change and future career development. Nigel is also an Operations Advisor with Advent International providing advice and support to the portfolio businesses across Europe on their people, organisation and HR agenda.

Nigel's experience is characterised by fast changing business environments. He has lived and worked in Europe, Asia Pacific and North America and has been involved in multiple acquisition/merger activities as well as major restructuring.

Nigel has an extensive senior level HR background including Chief HR Officer for BT Global Services, Group HR Director for Logica and was the EVP HR for Blackberry as it embarked on its major turnaround. Prior to joining Logica, he was a Board member and European HR Director for Equifax Plc and also held a variety of senior international roles with Prudential and Digital Equipment Company.